Remarkable panoramic view of the court room in Boise, Idaho, taken during the progress of the famous Steunenberg murder hearing

DEFENSE PLAN IN HAYWOOD TRIAL

Moyer to Testify—
Defense Calls Witnesses Today

Boise, Idaho, June 24.—In an address that occupied two sessions of the district court today, Clarence Darrow of Chicago outlined to the jury the detailed plan of defense of William D. Haywood to the charge that he murdered former Governor Steunenberg. In broad description, it is to be a denial of every material count in the testimony of Orchard, with a showing that Orchard killed Steunenberg because of a private grudge borne by the loss of a rich share in the great Hercules mine, and explanations of the independent circumstances that connected the three co-defendants with Orchard's life and operations. Haywood will take the stand to make personal denial of Orchard's accusations. Moyer may be called to testify solely to events and circumstances affecting the Western Federation of Miners, but Pettibone will not be a witness in this case. Mr. Darrow explained that Moyer and Pettibone must stand trial for this same crime, and declared that every lawyer knew the danger, whatever the circumstances, of exposing men awaiting trial under these circumstances. Mr. Darrow denied the existence of the great conspiracy to murder alleged by the state with Orchard's testimony as a basis; denied that the federation was anything but an earnest fighting labor organization, with higher wages, shorter hours, tolerable working conditions, and the care and safety and education of its members and their wives and children as its high and only motives; denied the intimacy with the three co-defendants that Orchard laid claim to; denied the several conferences and conversations that Orchard swore to; denied that Orchard had even committed many of the crimes he had boasted of, and promised to make proof of his contentions with many of the men named by Orchard when on the stand, and many witnesses of creditable character not connected by any tie with the federation or its leaders. Mr. Darrow charged that agents of the Mine

DEMOCRATS MEET IN HOBART TODAY

CONVENTION TO SELECT CON-GRESSIONAL CANDIDATE IN FIFTH DISTRICT.

Special to The Oklahoman.
Hobart, Okla., June 24.—Despite the intense interest felt in the Fifth congressional district democratic convention, which meets in this city tomorrow afternoon in its initial session, the best of feeling prevails among the several hundred delegates and rooters that have already reached the city. Each of the six avowed candidates for congressional honors are in the city and have established headquarters at the different hotels. Advance guards of the various delegations have been arriving all day and a special train bearing several hundred delegates and Chickasha democrats reached here at 7 o'clock tonight. DISTRIBUTE GREAT RICHES.

New York, June 24.—The July dividend and interest disbursement this year by various corporations will reach a grand total of $182,881,849. This is $18,573,678 greater than the aggregate of last year and eclipses the total of any other previous July in history.

COURT RULING TO BE MADE TODAY

Opinion Is That Convention Injunction Is to Be Annulled

Special to The Oklahoman.
Guthrie, Okla., June 24.—A majority of the members of the Oklahoma supreme bench are here to prepare the decision to be handed down tomorrow afternoon in the five constitutional convention cases now pending. The court will reconvene at 2 o'clock, tomorrow afternoon, and remain in session several days. While of course nothing has leaked in regard to what the court decision will be in the constitutional convention cases, yet the general opinion seems to be that the injunction, which was made permanent by Judge Ponceast, several weeks ago, will be dissolved in all or in part, thus permitting an election to be held on the proposed state constitution. The general belief is that the court will sustain Ponceast in doing away with county officers elections until after statehood. The statement was made by Governor Pratt today that if the Ponceast injunction is dissolved he will issue the election proclamation for a vote on the proposed constitution just as soon as the original copies of the constitution and election ordinance are filed with him. It is also learned that President Murray will reconvene enough delegates here, this week, if the court decision is favorable, and make whatever arrangements are necessary for holding the election on August 6 or some new date to be set by the convention. In addition to the constitutional convention cases, a decision will also be given in the Jennings writ of mandamus case.

WIFE MURDERER IS ELECTROCUTED

STAVED OFF DEATH AWHILE BY FOLLOWING PATRICK'S ADVICE.

New York, June 24.—John Johnson, a wife murderer, was put to death in the electric chair in Sing Sing prison early today. Two contacts were given. Johnson murdered his wife, Catherine, at her home in Yonkers two years ago in the presence of their young children. He had been an ex-convict, and treated his wife badly and shot her when she threatened to leave him. Albert T. Patrick, the lawyer connected with the murder of Millionaire William M. Barker, took a deep interest in Johnson when the two were confined together in the death house, and it was through advice given him that Johnson, by appeals to the court, was able to stave off death up to this time.

The bride is the divorced wife of Frank Skelly, formerly a hotel clerk here. She had resumed her maiden name. Mr. Hanna's former wife was granted a decree of divorce last Friday.

SWEETHEART NOW ON LOVER'S TRAIL

SAYS SHE SLAVED FOR HIM AND WAS REPAID BY BEING DESERTED.

Tulsa, I. T., June 24.—Myrtle Leonard, a beautiful woman from Springfield, Ill., arrived in Tulsa today in search of Dr. H. D. Hellum, a dentist, who until a week ago, occupied a prominent position, professionally and socially, at Skiatook, a small town fifteen miles north of Tulsa. Miss Leonard tells a touching story of love and devotion for one who proved untrue. For ten years she stayed, she says, to give Hellum an education in the belief that they would be married when he had attained his degree and embarked in his chosen profession. In all she claims to have advanced Hellum $1,100, when he finally betrayed her and fled to Indian Territory. She declares she will prosecute him for obtaining money under false pretenses.

ACCEPT MRS. SAGE'S GIFT.

New York, June 24.—The medical board of the city hospital today formally accepted Mrs. Russell Sage's gift of $300,000 for the formation of an adjunct to the city hospital on Blackwells Island to be known as the Russell Sage Institute of pathology.

WITNESS WILL COME HERE TODAY

Mrs. R. Myers Is Taken in Custody by Officers.

Mrs. R. Myers, clairvoyant and proprietor of a rooming house in Elk City, Okla., the woman to whom Tegeler wrote the letters which described the manner in which James Meadows was brutally murdered, will be one of the witnesses to testify before the coroner's inquest which is now endeavoring to fix the responsibility for Meadows' death. County Attorney Hays has issued instructions to the detectives who have been working on the case to have the woman taken into custody and brought to Oklahoma City. The officers in Elk City were communicated with and Mrs. Myers will probably be brought here today, and will be placed on the stand to tell of the connection between Tegeler, Mrs. Meadows and herself, before the inquest is brought to an end. The connection of Mrs. Myers with the case seems to be wrapped in considerable mystery. Tegeler has never yet given any plausible reason for writing to her the letters which described the brutal murder, and enclosing the diagram which gave the officers working on the case their first clue to the location of the body. Tegeler still insists that he merely copied the letters from originals which were given to him, and which he then destroyed, but he has not given a connected explanation as to why they were sent to Mrs. Myers. The fact that they were immediately returned to Police Chief Post in Oklahoma City also has a curious look to the officers. Mrs. Myers has absolutely refused to submit to an interview on the subject, since the letters were received, and, after a consultation, Chief Post and County Attorney Hays decided to have her brought here to testify at the inquest. Mrs. Myers may also throw some light on the intimacy existing between herself and Mrs. Meadows. Mrs. Myers claimed a short time ago that she knew neither Tegeler nor Mrs. Meadows, Tegeler has admitted to his associates that Mrs. Myers had a strong

WILL TAKE A SPECIAL CENSUS

Special to The Oklahoman.
Washington, D. C., June 24.—To ascertain if there is a legislative gerrymander in the Oklahoma constitution, the president has ordered Commission North of the census bureau to take a census of Indian Territory and Oklahoma. Announcement to this effect was made today from the department of justice and the census will be taken under the law creating the department of commerce and labor. There is no doubt that in ordering this census the president yielded to the importunities of the republican leaders of Oklahoma, who all along have urged the president to repudiate the Oklahoma constitution. That he would go this far the president has given no positive indication, but the contemplated census is regarded as a victory for the anti-constitution crowd.

300 FIGHT OIL FIELD FLAMES

Special to The Oklahoman.
Sapulpa, I. T., June 24.—One of the most disastrous fires in the history of the Glenn pool is raging six miles southeast of this city on the property of the Quaker, Texas and Victor Oil companies. The estimated loss at present is $75,000. The fire broke out about 2 o'clock Sunday morning in a 35,000 barrel tank owned by the Quaker Oil company and spread rapidly to neighboring tanks until six 1600 barrel tanks of the Texas Oil company were in flames. Three hundred men have been battling with the flames, which it is not expected to subside for 48 hours. Smoke in great volumes has been pouring over Sapulpa. The cause of the fire is not definitely known but it is supposed that lightning set fire to the big tank of the Quaker Oil company.

POTATOES SOAR TO $1.05 A BUSHEL IN SHAWNEE

Special to The Oklahoman.
Shawnee, Okla., June 24.—Unusual activity marked the potato market today, the prices soaring as high as $1.05 per bushel, breaking all records in Oklahoma. Fifteen buyers are on the local market, representing commission companies at all northern cities. Last year about 800 cars of spuds were shipped from this point, the price averaged 52 cents. It is estimated tonight that potatoes will be selling in car load lots at $1.25 before Wednesday night. A general crop shortage has caused the rapid increase in price.

ILLINOIS MAN GETS PLACE VACATED BY TISDEL

Special to The Oklahoman.
Muskogee, I. T., June 24.—A. A. Davidson, of Tahlequah, was today appointed master in chancery for the Western district, vice Clark J. Tisdell, who resigned. Mr. Davidson comes from Illinois and is an old friend of Judge Lawrence. The master's place is one of the best in Indian Territory. It is on a fee system and the fees are in hands of minor children, passed through his hands. It was on account of the business that Tisdell resigned, he being charged with acting as attorney for companies buying leases in his court.

MORBID CROWD HEARS TALE OF MOST REVOLTING CRIME

Thirty minutes before the time for the inquest in the Meadows case to open the district court room where the inquisition is being held, was packed to suffocation and the corridor outside was filled with a fighting, struggling mass of morbid curiosity seekers, all striving with might and main to gain a vantage point from which they might hear the gruesome details of the crime related, and least their eyes upon the faces of man and woman held on suspicion of having been implicated in the crime.

In all the history of Oklahoma City, no crime committed here has excited the public interest that has been aroused by the Meadows case. Women whose attire indicated a high social standing and women of the streets crowded and crowded, side by side, in their efforts to get inside the swinging doors of the court room, and prominent business men and nameless hordes fought for standing room at the railing.

One of the remarkable features was the fact that fully half of the more than 400 persons who were packed inside the court room were women and girls. Mothers carrying their babies in their arms fought their way inside and then stood tall through the railings, their gaze fixed upon the witness and again at the adjournment of the hearing yesterday afternoon. The curiosity seekers crowded the corridors and stairways, and filled the driveway between the court house and jail.

Skin Blotches

Indicate skin sickness. Sometimes it's a little colony of germs that are feasting on your skin. Sometimes it is the symptom or forerunner of a much more serious skin trouble to come. In any event if you value your looks, comfort or future health, you should get rid of the trouble at once no matter how slight it may seem. Don't ask Eczema, Erysipelas, Ringworm and their scalding skin diseases by letting my indication of skin sickness run on untreated. When Little's Liquid Sulphur stops itching instantly and permanently relieves any and all forms of skin disease, no matter what it may be.

Gentlemen: November, 1902, I contracted facial erysipelas and my physician prescribed leucidal ointment and treatment from business. After one day's use of the ointment I concluded erysipelas was preferable, on account of the villainous odor and color of the ointment. Having by me a bottle of Little's Liquid Sulphur, with which I had cured, with one application, an aggravated case of prickly heat the previous summer, I abandoned all other remedies and applied that with most satisfactory results as the disease was confined to its original limits and in due time disappeared.

Respectfully, S. G. Warner, General Passenger Agent, Kansas City Southern Railway. Sample bottle sent postpaid to any address for the Luma-Sulphur Co., St. Louis, Mo.

surrounding the finding of the decaying body of the woman's husband. Girls in short dresses stood with flushed faces drinking in every word of the loathsome story, and women more than old enough to be their grandmothers pushed and crowded in an effort to shove them from their places, dimming eyes strained to see the faces of the accused and hands cupped behind ears in an effort to avoid the foully bearing.

It was the same old story of the peculiar fascination that anything loathsome and morbid seems to hold for many persons.

When Tegeler, Mrs. Meadows and Mrs. Keith were excluded from the court room by the order of Coroner Schaefer, and led to the sheriff's office to await their call to the witness stand, there was a mad rush, principally on the part of the women who thronged the corridor, to get to a point where they could see the prisoners pass. The deputy sheriffs in charge hurried their charges through the crowd and into the office, but a horde of eager, panting women were hot upon the trail and crowded through the doors close behind, filling the office and never losing a movement or a look of the three.

It was the same story when the prisoners were led to the county jail at noon, and again at the adjournment of the hearing yesterday afternoon. The curiosity seekers crowded the corridors and stairways, and filled the driveway between the court house and jail.

Mrs. Meadows was dressed entirely in black when she appeared in court yesterday, and although there was a worried look in her eyes, she ignored the stares of the crowd and was apparently unconscious of the hundreds of eyes turned upon her.

Mrs. Keith, her companion, was apparently even less impressed by the searching scrutiny of the crowd than Mrs. Meadows. She often turned in her chair and calmly watched those who were staring at her, seemingly not half so much interested in the proceedings as were the spectators who had fought for their places.

Tegeler was the only nervous member of the party. Only once did he raise his eyes to look at the crowd, and then he fixed his gaze on the floor again, never raising his head unless he was spoken to by one of his attorneys. In the short time that elapsed before he was led from the court room to the sheriff's office he was plainly nervous and kept up a continual shifting in his seat.

When he was led through the crowd he went straight ahead, without a look at either side, apparently worried over the ordeal.

In all probability the crowd today will be even larger than that of yesterday, as there is a well defined idea that Tegeler or Mrs. Meadows, or possibly both of them, will be placed on the witness stand today.

PALE, WEAK PEOPLE

MADE STRONG AND ENERGETIC BY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

General Breakdown Caused by Deficient Blood Quickly Corrected by This Tonic Remedy.

A feeling of general weakness, poor appetite, loss of breath after the slightest exercise and broken sleep are some of the symptoms of general debility. You may think that they have no relation to each other and that you will worry along, hoping all the time to feel better soon. This is a mistake, for every one of the symptoms is caused by bad blood, which must be made pure and new before health will be restored again. A tonic treatment is necessary and for this purpose there is no better remedy than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Mr. J. G. Haver, of 95 Willow St., Chelsea, Mass., says: "I was sick for a number of years from general debility and indigestion. I was never free from stomach trouble and my nerves were so shattered that the least excitement unfitted me for any serious work. My sleep was restless on account of terrible pains in the small of my back. These pains would sometimes last for a month or two. My sight grew weak, there seemed to be a blue constantly before my eyes. I couldn't concentrate my mind on my work, and the attempt to do so completely exhausted me."

"I was finally forced to give up a position I had held for twenty-eight years. After trying several medicines without help I read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and gave them a trial. They made me feel so much better and so much stronger that I started in business for myself here in Chelsea. I have never had a return of my former sickness, and cheerfully recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as an excellent nerve and blood tonic."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have long been recognized as an excellent tonic remedy in cases of indigestion and general debility, where the stomach and other organs of the body are weakened and disordered simply through lack of proper nourishment. They have also been especially successful in curing anemia, rheumatism, after-effects of the grip and fevers.

A pamphlet on "Diseases of the Blood" and a copy of our diet book will be sent free on request to anyone interested.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

TO BE REQUESTED TO EXHUME BODY

A request will be made of Coroner Schaefer today to order the exhumation of the body of Mrs. Rudolph Tegeler, who died under somewhat suspicious circumstances a year ago.

A suspicion has arisen that Mrs. Tegeler did not die a natural death, and that she may have been a victim of poison.

"We will make a request on Coroner Schaefer tomorrow to exhume the body," said one of the officers who has been working on the case, last night. "An examination will be made, if the coroner will make the necessary order, to ascertain, if possible, if she died from natural causes, or if poison was given her. The manner of her death strongly indicates the latter, and although a year has elapsed since she was buried, it may be possible to detect the presence of certain kinds of poison, if they were used."

Coroner Schaefer has indicated that if a request is made for the exhumation of the body, he will make the order. The coroner agrees with the statement that in case certain kinds of poisons were used, traces of them may still be discovered.

"That story is all red," said Rudolph Tegeler yesterday, referring to the report that she died under peculiar circumstances. "My wife's mother died from a stroke of apoplexy," he said, "and my wife's death was due to the same cause."

"Two physicians attended her at the time of her death. They can go ahead and dig up the body if they want to; it won't do them any good. They won't find any traces of poison or anything of the kind."

TEGELER'S MONEY ABOUT ALL SPENT

The money which Rudolph Tegeler received from the sale of his property on June 8, $1,175, has all slipped through his fingers. His attorney, B. H. Boardman, got the last of it yesterday as his fee for defending Tegeler on the charge which now confronts him.

On June 8, four days after the disappearance of James R. Meadows, Rudolph Tegeler, the man now held in the county jail because of his suspected complicity in the crime, if not of its actual performance, filed in the office of the county register a deed conveying his interests in lot 30, block 14, Gault's addition to Oklahoma City, to J. W. Peoples and R. J. Risk. The consideration was $1,525, but there was a mortgage of $500 against the property and Tegeler received $1,175 in cash. This money he deposited in the bank, and has not reinvested any portion of it.

At the time of his arrest he had a little more than $500 in the Western National Bank. This is what he has given to his attorney.

The other $500 the officers say, went to Mrs. Meadows, as has practically all of the money that Tegeler has earned during the last ten months.

Each day a fresh stock of opportunities arrives through Oklahoma wants.

MEET TO DECIDE UPON CONVENTION

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO DETERMINE WHETHER CREDIT MEN WILL BE INVITED.

Shall Oklahoma City be the next convention city for the National Credit Men's association and undertake the task of entertaining probably 4000 delegates who will represent the largest commercial interests of the country?

To consider, and if possible decide, this question, a meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce will be held this afternoon.

"Oklahoma should have and will have the 1908 convention and entertain her visitors in the royal free hearted manner of the west," said H. V. Thompson, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

"It is something we cannot afford to miss. The meeting of the national credit men brings together the leaders in the commercial and financial world and is a most influential gathering."

"It would be a vast benefit to Oklahoma City. The delegates are mostly men of means and after becoming interested in Oklahoma some of them would invest here. We can show them our resources and attainments."

"An attempt will be made to have the proposition definitely settled tomorrow afternoon. If we cannot come to an agreement then I will ask the board to appoint a committee on investigation which will have power to act without reconvening the board."

"I estimate that Oklahoma City would draw about 1000 delegates. The convention will be in session three days. We would be asked to show our visitors over the city in cars, carriages and automobiles and to finish the convention with a banquet."

"We are practically without a rival should we ask for the convention. Salt Lake City would like to have it but knows she has no show with us and will withdraw the bid when we apply."

FOUND GUILTY OF TIPPING THE LID

BARTENDER CONVICTED IN POLICE COURT—NOTICE OF APPEAL FILED.

H. C. Moore, a bartender at the Stag bar, 111 North Robinson street, was fined $25 and costs in police court last night on a charge of selling whisky on Sunday.

It is claimed by the police that Moore conducted thirty persons, particularly parties of two, when one was a man and one a woman, into rooms above the Stag bar and there sold beer, whisky and other drinks of an intoxicating nature.

When the officers entered the place at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, they allege that two rooms, at least, were occupied by couples who said they were from Vinia and had been told that beer was obtainable in the rooms over the Stag.

The method of serving the whisky, blinks, according to the police, was by means of an elevator, constructed about a week ago, connecting the stock room of the saloon with a room upstairs.

Villah Coleman, who says she manages the house in the absence of the landlady, pleaded not guilty to a charge of conducting wine rooms, and was discharged. She contends that she saw no beer or beer bottles, while several officers state that they saw three bottles delivered through the dumb waiter, and that at least a half dozen more were scattered about on tables.

Attorney Ledin Guthrie, for the defense, filed notice of appeal.

John Owen, who was alleged to be a "Drooping Tom," was fined $5 and costs for being drunk.

G. F. Martha, arrested for impersonating an officer, was fined $10 and costs. He was wearing a tin star.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Oklahoma City People Know How to Save It.

Many Oklahoma City people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is the statement of an Oklahoma City citizen who has regained good health by the use of this remedy:

J. J. White, organizer for the Home Relief Association of Oklahoma, and living at 528 West California St., Oklahoma City, Okla., says: "I have had more or less trouble from my kidneys for years. I would have such severe spells of lameness in my back that if I remained in one position for any length of time the pain would be acute. The action of the kidney secretions was also rather irregular at times. When Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention at the Scott Drug Co.'s store, I procured some and found them to be just the remedy I needed. Since using them I have felt greatly relieved. From my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills I do not hesitate to recommend them to anyone whose kidneys are out of order or who suffer from backache."

HOLCOMB PLEASES LARGE AUDIENCE

LECTURE ON "FOUR SQUARE MAN" EVOLVES MUCH APPLAUSE AT CHAUTAUQUA.

In a lecture on the "Four Square Man," Prof. I. M. Holcomb appeared before the chautauqua assembly yesterday afternoon. The event carried special interest with it because of the fact that a local man was the principal feature. Mr. Holcomb sustained his reputation as a splendid orator and his subject was appropriate. Excellent in voice, easy of manner, and with a style of oratory peculiarly original, he kept his audience in almost continual applause, during the unfolding of his theory of the successful man of today.

There should be four walls builded by every man, he said. They should be the wall of honesty, the wall of courage, the wall of industry and the wall of common sense. Elaborating upon these phases of successful humankind, he proposed to crown these four walls with the canopy of love and affection.

In brilliant flights of oratory, Mr. Holcomb painted a word picture of Benedict Arnold, first as the real hero and commanding genius of the famous battle of Saratoga in the revolution, and then as the traitor, forgotten of mankind, despite the great good he had done. This man, he said, had erected the walls of courage, industry and common sense, but instead of honesty, had substituted dishonesty.

Sunday afternoon and night the initial sessions of the chautauqua were addressed by Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus of Chicago, who is known far and wide as a brilliant platform speaker. At the night session he discoursed eloquently on the life of Savonarola, the great Florentine reformer. To students of the history of the fifteenth century, the lecture was an intellectual treat.

A feature of the first two days of the chautauqua was the Harmony Orchestra which furnished the musical preludes.

10 Fascinating Fiction Features The New Broadway For July

Not merely ten stories, but ten fiction features—for every one of them is a Broadway story. That means that they are stories of the true Broadway quality—stories that are not only interesting from start to finish, but stories that ring with the true happiness of living—stories that make you feel better for having read them.

Nine of these stories in the July BROADWAY—by such popular favorites as Zona Gale, Anna Alice Chapin, Filson Young, Sherburne F. Johnson, Raymond Lee Harriman, John Barton Oxford—are complete.

The other is the first of five instalments of Eleanor Hoyt Brainard's "Letters of a Debutante." This is nothing short of the literary treat of the year. No American woman can hope to be thoroughly in touch with the doings of the social set in New York city—can hope to be up to the minute in her reading—if she fails to read the "Letters of a Debutante"; no man who has once started this fascinating, humorous and continually surprising bit of sparkling fiction will want to lay it down unfinished.

But don't think that short stories are all the July BROADWAY contains. It is brighter than ever with just the type of important special articles and informative departments which have helped to make BROADWAY the most striking success of recent years in magazine-making. There is an article on New York's bridges, an article on art work with reproductions from paintings, an article that tells how society amuses itself in summer, etc.

If you have been longing for some magazine that would prove so thoroughly interesting that you would read it all the way through, be sure you get the July number of the New BROADWAY MAGAZINE.

CLAIRVOYANT'S TESTIMONY IN MEADOWS' MURDER CASE WILL BE OFFERED TODAY

Influence over him. Mrs. Meadows and Mrs. Myers have been sufficiently intimate, the officers say, to induce Mrs. Meadows to go to a little town in Kansas a short time ago to care for Mrs. Myers, when the latter was ill there.

One of the interesting pieces of evidence which will be introduced at the inquest, probably today, tends to show the existence of a professional gang of assassins who have made their headquarters in and around Oklahoma City. This evidence will come when one of the letters, which Tegeler admits that he wrote, is read.

It is stated in this letter that at least four "bodies" are buried within a short distance of the place where the body of James Meadows was exhumed. It was in this same letter that the information was given, which was later proven to be authentic, concerning the location of the Meadows' body.

Chief Post and the other officers working on the case do not place any particular credence in this portion of the letter, but at the same time, they are unable to understand why this item should be included if it is false.

This letter purports to be written by the "captain of the gang," which, the message claims, killed Meadows. Tegeler admits that he wrote the letter but insists that he has no further knowledge of its contents.

Only four witnesses were examined yesterday by County Attorney Hays at the first day's session of the coroner's inquest, being held in the district court room in an attempt to fix the responsibility for the death of James Meadows, construction foreman of the Pioneer Telephone company, who mysteriously disappeared from his home in Capitol Hill on the night of June 4 and concerning whose whereabouts no clues were discovered until his badly decomposed body was exhumed by Chief Post and the other officers who have been working on the case, last Friday night.

One of the four witnesses was Mrs. Dora Keith, nurse and companion of Mrs. Lila Meadows, who, with Mrs. Meadows, is confined in the county jail suspected of being implicated in the crime. City Attorney T. G. Chambers, Dr. L. A. Riley and Charles N. Roberts were the others.

Roberts, who now holds Tegeler's old position as assistant engineer at the new water works plant, and with whom Tegeler had been especially intimate, was the principal witness of the day. He was placed on the stand shortly after the coroner returned to 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and was kept there until an adjournment was taken at 4 o'clock to visit the spot where Meadows' murdered body was exhumed by the officers, and the Meadows home in Capitol Hill.

Roberts was an unwilling witness, and it required the combined assistance of County Attorney Hays and S. A. Harris, who has been retained by the officials of the Pioneer Telephone company, to assist in the prosecution of the case, to get from him the same statement that he made willingly to Chief Post and a detective in the police station on Friday afternoon.

Asked concerning statements that he made to the officers at that time, Roberts evidenced a falling memory and, although in most instances he retained a hazy recollection of having said something of the kind, he was not at all positive that he had made the statements attributed to him.

Roberts furnished the cause for the unusual sight of a crowd of spectators at a murder inquest conducted with laughter. Yawning and apparently paying little attention to the questions directed at him by the witness chair, Roberts seemed pleased by the attention he was receiving from the crowd of morbidly curious who packed the court room, and it was not until the line of questions indicated that the attorneys had an idea that Roberts might be attempting to conceal something, that he straightened up and began to pay attention. From then on his assumption of indifference vanished and he made a good witness.

Roberts stated that he had been in Oklahoma City since about August 11, last year, and that he had been employed at the water works since October 1. He stated that he had been fairly intimate with Tegeler during all this time, and that they had talked together a great deal.

"Yes, Tegeler used to talk to me a good deal about Mrs. Meadows," said Roberts. "I got the impression from what he said that he loved the woman, and that he thought she loved him."

"Did he ever say that the witness that Meadows was dead, so that he could marry Mrs. Meadows?" asked County Attorney Hays.

"I don't know that he ever said just that; I think that he said he wished it was so he could marry her; that he would do so if they were not so they could," was the response.

Roberts told of the intimacy that has existed for the last ten months between Tegeler and Mrs. Meadows. He used to tell me of staying at Mrs. Meadows' house at 116 1-2 North Broadway on an average of five nights out of the week," said Roberts. "The last time I should judge for about ten months. At least, I commenced before Mrs. Meadows moved away from Capitol Hill. Tegeler told me of one time that he and Mrs. Meadows went out driving and she took a quilt along. He said that they went out in the country and laid on a straw stack until 3 o'clock in the morning."

Roberts also said that Tegeler had told him that Meadows' health was not good and that Tegeler had received his information from Mrs. Meadows.

It was in regard to the short drive that Roberts took with Tegeler on the night of June 4, the night that Meadows disappeared, that the attorneys directed most of their questions, and it was then that Roberts quit yawning and commenced to take an interest in the proceedings.

"I drove down town with him that night," said Roberts. "He said he was going out driving with Mrs. Meadows and when we passed the Merchants' saloon he asked me to hold the horse while he went in and telephoned to her. He came out in a few minutes and said that she would not be ready for about an hour, so we drove out in Maywood. We drove around for a little bit and then came back down town, when I went calling on a young lady and Tegeler went with Mrs. Meadows. Or at least, he told me that he did."

"What time did he say they got in?" asked the attorney.

"About 9:30 or 10 o'clock, I think. Wasn't it later than that?"

"No, sir, I don't think that it was." It was at this point in the examination that County Attorney Hays divulged by his questions the finding of a shovel in an alley between Seventh and Eighth streets, near the Santa Fe railroad tracks, with the handle covered with blood stains.

The county attorney expects to prove that this was the spade used in digging the grave in which Meadows was buried, and he attempted to gain an admission from Roberts that while he was with Tegeler they drove over the route.

"No, sir, we did not go north of Fourth street, I am sure," insisted the witness, and he could not be shaken on this point.

The shovel in question was found the morning after the night on which Meadows disappeared, and the county attorney has never before given out any information concerning it. It was covered with earth as though it had been recently used, and there were blood stains on the handle. The theory is that the assassins of Meadows dropped the spade there, in an attempt to rid themselves of it, after they had returned to the city.

One line taken by the attorneys in the examination of Roberts indicates that they will give the rooming house at 116 1-2 North Broadway an unsavory reputation before they are through.

Roberts was asked if he had ever heard any of the other men at the water plant say anything about visiting the place. He said that two of them, Charles Lenz and L. W. Pennington, had talked of going up there and visiting with a woman named Pauline, and a Mrs. Day, the latter a married woman. A subpoena was issued for Lenz, but Pennington has left the city.

Roberts also told of the information given him by Tegeler concerning a robbery pulled off in the place, when Mrs. Day went out to get change for a $20 bill for an El Reno farmer, and failed to return.

The attorneys for the state had expected to show an acquaintance at last between Roberts and Mrs. Keith, and it was for this reason that Roberts was one of those excluded from the court room by the order of the coroner during the morning session. Both Roberts and Mrs. Keith were questioned about this but each of them denied knowing the other.

Mrs. Keith was the last witness placed on the stand before the noon recess was taken. She said that she had been in Oklahoma City for about eight months but that she had been staying with Mrs. Meadows at 116 1-2 North Broadway since May 22, when she was called to care for Mrs. Meadows, who was ill.

"Who summoned you?" asked the county attorney.

"Mr. Tegeler came to 216 1-2 North Broadway where I was living and asked me if I would go down and see Mrs. Meadows," she said.

Mrs. Keith said that while she was with Mrs. Meadows, Tegeler was a frequent visitor there and that he often called up over the telephone and asked for Mrs. Meadows. She insisted, however, that he never remained in the house over night. She was certain of this, she said, because she occupied the same room with Mrs. Meadows.

"Was Mrs. Meadows away from the house on the night of June 4?" asked the attorney.

"She went out for a little while, saying that she was going out to meet a lady friend. She walked away from the house and if she met Tegeler or went riding with him I do not know. She had a telephone call just before she left and she told me that it was from the lady that she was going to meet. She returned about 9:30 o'clock."

Mrs. Keith was positive that it was not later than this when Mrs. Meadows returned, and she also stated positively that Mrs. Meadows did not leave the house again that night.

According to Mrs. Keith, Mrs. Meadows always introduced Tegeler as her cousin.

The fireworks opened in the inquest yesterday morning when County Attorney Hays asked Coroner Schaefer to exclude Tegeler, Mrs. Meadows, Mrs. Keith and Charles Roberts from the court room until they should be called as witnesses.

Col. J. W. Johnston, one of the attorneys for Tegeler and Mrs. Meadows, objected strenuously to this, claiming that while formal complaint had never been filed against them, yet they were virtually charged with committing the murder, and as such defendants they had a right to hear the evidence against them. County Attorney Hays claimed that the inquest was merely an inquiry for the purpose of ascertaining, if possible, who is responsible for the death of Meadows, and that the persons named were only present as witnesses and as such might be legally excluded from the room.

"I want to serve notice right now," said Col. Johnston, "that if you send these people out, their lips will be sealed, and they will not be brought back until you produce an order from a higher court than this to make me bring them in. This is an unjust and an un-American thing to do."

Coroner Schaefer allowed the county attorney's request and the four persons named were taken to the sheriff's office.

City Attorney Chambers was the

WAS MEADOWS DRUGGED AND MURDERED WHILE HE SLEPT?

Was James R. Meadows drugged by his assassins on the night when he disappeared and was he under the influence of some powerful sleeping poison when the fatal shots were fired which ended his life?

This is one of the many complicated points which Chief Post and the other officers who are working on the Meadows murder case are having to contend in the fixing of a theory which will account for the manner in which the murdered man was killed, and at the same time correspond with the many details of an apparently contradictory nature which have been discovered.

One of the hardest things for them to explain is that the bullet wound which pierced the left lung of the dead man, and carried away a portion of the fourth rib, although it passed entirely through the body, did not penetrate the vest, shirt or undershirt found on the body when it was discovered.

Another curious feature is that the bullet which penetrated the body was the physicians who conducted the post mortem examination believe, fired from the rear, while the ball which pierced the brain, and was located underneath the skull at the top of the head, entered at the right corner of the mouth.

The only way in which the officers can account for these seeming discrepancies is that Meadows was drugged in some manner, that his body was carried away from the house unclad, as he had retired for the night, and that the two shots were fired while he was lying upon the ground, possibly by the side of the shallow grave which had already been prepared for him.

James R. Meadows was taking medicine for the kidney trouble from which he was a constant sufferer. It was his custom, the officers say, to always take a dose just before retiring for the night.

It might have been a comparatively easy matter, they think, for some one to have slipped into this medicine some strong sleeping potion which would have rendered him insensible shortly after he had disrobed and gone to bed. The fact that the bottle containing this medicine could not be found when the house was searched, shortly after the disappearance, lends credence to this theory, as the persons who carried Meadows away would naturally have taken care to destroy this bit of incriminating evidence.

Once under the power of the drug, Meadows could easily have been loaded into the buggy which drove up at the north side of his little home in Capitol Hill, on B street, carried out into the country east, where the badly decomposed body was exhumed two weeks later, and the two shots then fired while his helpless form lay upon the ground.

If the body was lying upon the ground, face down, the ball fired from a revolver held by some person standing directly over the murdered man would have taken the course described by the physicians who examined the remains.

Apparently, the heart was the target sought, but the hand of the assassin trembled and the ball missed that organ.

Turning the body over, the murderer sought an easier mark, according to one theory, and fired at the brain. That would make perfectly natural the course of the ball which entered at the corner of the mouth and passed through the brain, coming against the skull with sufficient force to produce several radiating fractures, but not with enough to pass through.

The flow of blood following these wounds, if Meadows was in a comatose condition, would have been less than if he was conscious at the time the wounds were received. After the hemorrhages had ceased, the officers say, the murderers clothed the body in the garments which they had taken care to bring with them, and dumped it into the shallow grave, stamped down the earth with which they covered it, and returned to the city, secure in the belief that the remains would never be discovered nor the crime brought home to them.

ROOSEVELT AND THE CONSTITUTION

CONGRESSMAN LANDIS, of Indiana, is quoted in an interview at Chickasha with saying that "if the constitution of Oklahoma is one-half as bad, has gerrymandered the state as completely as republican leaders say it does, President Roosevelt will never issue the proclamation making Oklahoma a state."

This deliverance on the part of the Indiana congressman would really be interesting if true. But how are we to know that he knows what he is talking about? Is he here as the oracle of the president? And how long has he held the commission?

We can readily understand why the carpetbaggers and place-seeking republican politicians will endeavor to make it appear that he is speaking by the card, for it serves their purpose to have the impression obtain that the constitution as it stands is unacceptable to the president; but it may be seriously doubted if he is authorized to speak for anybody but himself or is doing more in this instance than echoing the inspired wail of the enemies to statehood.

The president told the committee representing the constitutional convention which recently called upon him in Washington that he had never intimated to, much less told, anyone that objectionable features existed in the proposed constitution. In the light of this direct and positive statement from him it seems reasonable to conclude that Mr. Landis is speaking for the president with about the same authority as inheres in any ordinary presumptuous citizen.

Therefore, let's quiet our affrighted souls and cross over no bridge until we reach it. If the president wishes to assume the responsibility for his party of turning down the constitution on some pretext or other, let him do so; and the democratic party will write the next one with even a larger majority in the constitutional convention than it had in the one just adjourned.

If Harry Orchard's utterances are true nothing in this world should save his neck from the hangman's noose. If not true they are valueless to society.

THE ERUPTION COMING.

UNDER the caption, "A Word of Warning to the Oklahoma Leaders," the Tulsa World, one of the leading republican journals of the new state, prints the following:

"The long threatened revolt against the dictatorial and suicidal policy of the state central committee of the republican party of Oklahoma has come to pass. For months such action has been growing in strength, and the inclination of the committee to take the power of government from the hands of the people has aided in popularity of the movement. The desire of the people for home government, everywhere apparent, should have acted as a warning to the politicians, and for self-protection, if for no higher motive, they should have considered well the demands of the rank and file. No association of men is greater than its constituency, and the attempt made by selfish interests to curtail the rights of liberty-loving Oklahomans by shoddy superficiality, could have but one end: failure. The people want self-government. The people who have caused all this unnecessary delay and embarrassment in accomplishing statehood, can hold no resentment against the people, if they find themselves persona non grata in the party councils and labors henceforth. The World has consistently favored and fought for statehood, and has unceasingly argued that the only feasible path to immediate statehood was by the adoption of the constitution. It is gratifying to the World to note that the prominent leaders among THE PEOPLE of the republican party have awakened to this fact. The World has exhausted every effort to convince the state committee that the defeat of the constitution spelled political ruin to the party and commercial ruin to the Indian Territory, but against all reason, the state committee was led by Oklahoma 'interests' to declare against the constitution. In the face of the fact that an apparent unanimity of the state committee desired at least delay, the World has remained quiet on the subject of statehood, never, however, losing its enthusiasm in that respect. The World has, perhaps, fidgeted and fumed to itself, when the Oklahoma leaders committed some particularly inconceivable blunder, but in the interest of harmony, it had bided its time.

"Now that definite action has been taken by MEN REPRESENTATIVE OF THE PEOPLE, the World feels no longer under obligations to the state committee, and with this issue serves notice on the state committee, that in the event its policy is not radically changed, and unless it shows at once, by clear and unmistakable effort, a sincere indication of quick work for statehood, the World will say God speed to the rump convention, and will devote its influence, heart and soul to the movement. And the World believes that that rump convention will be so representative of the business interests, the common toilers, and the vote-free, broad-minded, uncontrolled masses of the republican party that a 'regular' convention, called at the instance of the 'leaders' in Oklahoma, will be a physical impossibility.

"It is up to the 'leaders.' The voice of the new state citizenship has been heard. The 'leaders' must obey or perish."

It is evident from the foregoing that not all the republicans in the new state can be depended upon to aid the interests seeking to defeat the constitution and statehood. At least here is one republican paper which places the welfare of its state above party long enough to declare warfare upon the effort on the part of republican leaders to keep Oklahoma hog-tied longer in order that the necessity of going to work may be obviated among the carpetbaggers.

And the end is not yet. The rank and file have never had a say. When they get one, if it ever pleases the courts, it need not be surprising if something pops in a thunders and ominous way.

"Little men can not mend a great age," shouts Chancellor Day. Little men are, however, trying very strenuously to do so.

Japan is to have its troubles from jingoism in its governing body. The affliction will be more trying than a war with China.

Mayor Schmitz had it in his power to be of vast benefit to the cause of labor and to leave an honored name. Like too many men who have been exalted by labor, he could not withstand temptation, if it can charitably be supposed he ever was an honest man.

The declaration made by Ambassador Bryce that there cannot be too much in the constitution has spiked some of the popguns of the Republican press in the new state.

She had been a faithful friend for the past five years. In sunshine and in rain, in prosperity and adversity, she has always been faithful to her trust. Requiescat in pace."

Socialists at Durham, Oklahoma, are out with a published denunciation of certain Roger Mills county socialists who recently passed resolutions denouncing the new constitution. The Durham socialist declares: "If any one claiming to be a socialist is so unable to understand the essentials and fundamentals of socialism that he cannot see that the constitution gives us just what we ask for in our platform, we consider him incompetent to represent the party in any position, and if he persists in his intention to vote against its adoption, we will refuse to support him at the polls."

Some Current Topics of the Nation's Capital

By Willis J. Abbot

Washington, June 24.—Something more than forty thousand people attended a horse race just outside of New York Thursday last. The price which they paid for admission averaged two dollars each. Although betting is not legalized in New York, the estimate placed upon the losses of the visitors to this race track—for the "favorite" lost—in the neighborhood of $1,000,000. Between the charges for admission and the winnings of the bookmakers this seems to be a great deal of money to pass from hand to hand merely in order that those who had it and those who now have it might know what horse could run most rapidly around a mile course.

Possibly it is an illustration of prosperity that from one city there should be drawn so many men able to spend their money thus lavishly. If that is the prosperity of today, it is a prosperity founded upon poverty, grief and woe. Two classes of men frequent the race tracks. One, the men of enormous wealth, who draw their income from the oppression of tenants, of workmen and of workingwomen. The other, the cheaper class of men, who, instead of working for the support of their families, neglect their duties and use the earnings of their families in gambling. The amount of sorrow which has come to the women of this country through race track gambling cannot be estimated.

The state in which racing flourishes most is New York. That state now is presided over by Governor Hughes, a man of known force of character, a man who has shown his metal in more than one hard fought fight. Is it possible that with his control over the legislature Governor Hughes cannot do anything to suppress this form of gambling by which the old Louisiana lottery sinks into insignificance. Or can it be that the group of rich men who control the tracks, and who have persuaded him that it is right and proper to permit the poorer men to bet in order that bookmakers may pay from one hundred to one hundred and fifty dollars a day each toward the profits of the track owners. When Governor Hughes finds every newspaper in New York City giving from page and a half to three pages to accounts of the racing—statements of the odds and specifying the names of the winner and losers—it must occur to him that there is some gambling attached to the horse racing business. If so, why should not the same power which drove out Canfield, drive out also the vastly greater gambling concern, the legalized race track?

Watterson and Hughes. Meanwhile Colonel Watterson thinks Governor Hughes the certain republican candidate for the presidency. If Mr. Watterson is mysterious about the democratic candidate, he is vacillating concerning the republican candidate. He said in an interview printed this week: "Governor Hughes is the most available man the republicans can nominate and the trend is all toward him. He is saying little, but is attending strictly to business; and is making a record as a very efficient governor."

It is fair to say for Mr. Watterson that this is not a sudden outburst of enthusiasm. As long ago as April 19 he announced with enthusiasm that he had met Governor Hughes "familiarily in Providence during the 1896 commencement of Brown's university, which conferred degrees upon each of us. He impressed me as a fine type of the New England American in the prime of his powers, unaffected and sturdy, with a charming twinkle of dry humor. The final evening which we passed together around a delightful board where there was good company and plenty of soda water, I said to him, 'The republicans will nominate you for governor of New York.' . . . Now when you get to Albany give your days and nights to a close study of the career of Samuel J. Tilden, because you will stand precisely in the relation to the presidential nomination in 1908 on the republican side to which Mr. Tilden stood on the democratic side in 1876."

Mr. Watterson's interview went much more into detail. It serves to illuminate somewhat the position of these men who calling themselves democrats cannot keep step with the democratic party, or with the people it exists to serve. The Issues of Tilden.

CLEVER DOCTOR

Cured a 20 Years' Trouble Without Any Medicine.

A wise Ind. physician cured a 20-years' stomach disease without any medicine as his patient tells:

"I had stomach trouble for 20 years, tried doctors' medicines, patent medicines and all simple remedies suggested by my friends but grew worse all the time."

"Finally a doctor who is the most prominent physician in this part of the state told me medicine would do me no good only irritate my stomach and make it worse—that I must look to diet and quit drinking coffee."

"I cried out in alarm, 'Quit drinking Coffee' why? 'What will I drink?'"

"Try Postum," said the doctor. "I drink it and you will like it when it is made according to directions and served with cream, for it is delicious and has none of the bad effects coffee has."

"Well, that was over two years ago and I am still drinking Postum. My stomach is right again and I know Doctor hit the nail on the head when he decided coffee was the cause of all my trouble. I only wish I had quit it years ago and drank Postum in its place."

"Never too late to mend. Ten days' trial of Postum, in place of coffee works wonders. 'There's a Reason.' Read the famous little book, 'The Road to Wellville,' in pkgs. Physicians call it 'A little health classic.'" den's time have sunk into insignificance today. Mr. Tilden was a great man, a great lawyer, a great railroad lawyer. When he was a candidate for the presidency he was opposed by exactly the same interests that today oppose the democratic party. Mr. Watterson was then one of his young lieutenants. Mr. Watterson today with enthusiasm lost with a blind gone over to hide-bound conservatism, stands in opposition to exactly the element in the democratic party for which Mr. Tilden stood more than thirty years ago.

The radicalism of yesterday is the conservatism of today—to run the hackneyed phrase. The men who were radicals with Tilden seem inclined to be ultra conservative now. And they ask the people who are radical now to hark back thirty years and to make the democratic party in fact, as it has been charged with being, a party which forgets nothing, learns nothing and progresses not.

Edwin Seton, who for nearly fifteen years has been assistant secretary to the democratic national committee, has done a useful piece of work in gathering up all the official reports of the proceedings of the democratic party in convention from its inception to and including the convention of 1904. The task was not an easy one. People not intimately associated with the work of a political committee can hardly understand how suddenly records, even printed ones, disappear. They are sent out to citizens who use them during the period of the campaign and thereafter cast them aside. It may be doubted whether today any library in the United States has a complete series of the publications of both parties during the historic campaign of 1896. I know that I have been repeatedly solicited for documents on the democratic side and am unable to furnish them. Mr. Seton has gathered the proceedings of all democratic national conventions which are to be issued in book form. They will be most valuable to the student of politics and to the newspaper writer.

Private and Public Ownership.

Within a few days steps have been taken by which all the railroads in New England, from Portland, Me., to Bridgeport, Conn., pass under the same ownership. Most of the steamboat lines on the Sound which might help to correct this monopoly, are now owned by it, so, too, with the trolley lines, which in this densely populated part of the United States, rival in the amount of their business both freight and traffic the steam railroads by which they are owned.

Some years ago the state of Massachusetts owned the Boston and Albany railroad. A legislature elected through railroad influences, granted against the opposition of public spirited people in the state a lease for nine hundred and ninety-nine years of this road to the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad. The promise of the railroad advocates was that if they could own or control the Boston and Albany they would restore Boston to its former position as a "great shipping port. That promise has been so far unfulfilled that a movement is now under way in Massachusetts to get the legislature to cancel the lease. Now the same gigantic corporation which came to control all New England is striving to get the Boston and Maine—and probably will get it. The tactics are the same. In the newspapers which for one reason or another always play the railroad game, we find the statement that if this new lease can be made, enormous improvements are to be made in Boston harbor. Always there is the promise of great advantages in the future, never an immediate performance. But if it appears that one man or one group of men shall be able to control all the railroads, and nearly all of the shipping lines which serve the territory bounded by New York, Albany, Portland, Me., Boston and Fall River, that these people shall control all the methods and the machinery of travel, the shipment of freight, the carrying of express packages in communities that aggregate not less than eight million souls, does it not appear that the states and the nation are handing over to a few people such a principal as the kings of England and France never gave to their most pampered favorites? Does it not seem that if a few individuals can handle this enormous business, control this great territory for their own profit, it might be done by the government for its people.

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you. Or do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to trust upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle wrapper, what his medicines are made of and how they are made. This he feels he has an obligation to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nerve and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities to Dr. B. J. Pierce, (Wells Hotel) and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

A Plain Piano Talk

If it's Jenkins' talk it must be a plain one, for this is a straight-from-the-shoulder house.

We want to put a plain question to you today.

Why don't you settle that much mooted question in your family by buying a piano—now?

Talking about it won't put it into your home; will not stop the importunities of the young folks.

Let us guess why you are procrastinating.

You want a piano; you feel the need of it, but you can't spare the money to pay cash just now and you think you can save money by waiting until you can spare it. And you wait and wait.

You are wrong. No man, no matter what his station in life, can buy a piano in our store for less money by paying cash down than the man who takes advantage of our little-a-month plan, with interest at 6 per cent per annum.

Every piano on our floors is marked the spot cash price. If you want to borrow the money to pay for it we will lend it to you at 6 per cent interest a year on the unpaid balance. Cash or time, the price is the same.

We will sell you any piano you may select at the spot cash price and give you 20 to 30 months to pay for it in.

Suppose you tried to save the money to pay cash.

Could you do it? Would you do it?

The chances are NO, and in the end you would be without a piano. Think it over. Buy a piano today. Get acquainted with the Jenkins' way of selling pianos and the standard lines of the Jenkins house.

Let us talk with you.

No tricks, no guessing contests, the only one-price, no-commission piano and music house.

for the organization of a special Sunday school for the Mongolians. One of the pupils is a married man, having secured an American wife, who accompanied her husband to the church, talking with her the little baby.

"The preliminary arrangements were made, but the school will not be formally organized until next Sunday," said the Rev. H. A. Porter. "As is the custom, a teacher will be appointed for each pupil who comes to the Sabbath school. The work is starting off auspiciously and we expect to increase the membership to a score within a short time."

How many of our rich Oklahoma City men would be rich today if they had failed to take advantage of just such opportunities as we are offering you to-day in Culbertson's East Highland? An Electric Car Line is certain to be built through this addition in a short time and now is the time to invest. We all knew that the Electric Line was going to extend north through Putnams, Shaws Heights and Belle Isle, but most of us waited till the Electric Line was actually in operation and then wished to buy from the few wise ones who anticipated the rise, and they made money. A similar situation exists today in regard to Culbertson East Highland. Will you wait until it is completed or will you buy now? $100 to $200 per lot. Easy Terms.

MAYOR GROWING
BETTER RAPIDLYINTIMATE FRIENDS ARE NOW
PERMITTED TO MAKE SHORT CALLS ON EXECUTIVE.

"Mayor Scales is convalescing at a rate that is gratifying," is the statement made by Dr. J. W. Riley, one of the attending physicians, last evening.

Herbert Harter, one of the mayor's closest friends and a business associate, declared his belief last night that Mayor Scales will be able to leave St. Anthony's hospital within a week. "I do not mean by saying this that he will be a well man, for he will not," added Mr. Harter. "But the mayor's improvement within the past 48 hours has been remarkably rapid. He has been resting well and is in excellent spirits."

The mayor will be permitted by his physicians to receive short calls from his most intimate friends today. It is believed that such calls will be of benefit to him unless there are too many of them and they are prolonged.

WOMAN NOT LOST;
AWAITING TRAINLONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE OP-ERATOR IS SEARCHED FOR BY THE POLICE.

Miss Tonia Morton, a long distance telephone operator, for whom the police department made a search Sunday night, fearing she had met with some mishap, is not lost.

The young woman returned to the home of her brother-in-law, W. H. West, Thirtieth street and Classon avenue, and it develops that her disappearance was nothing more than a series of misunderstandings.

Miss Morton was expecting her sister, Miss Laura Morton, to return from a visit Sunday night, and understood that the train would not arrive until 6 o'clock. Instead the train upon which her sister was a passenger arrived 20 minutes before that hour. Learning that there was another train from the same direction about 10 o'clock at night, and not thinking that her sister had come on the earlier train, Miss Morton decided to wait for the later train. The second train was two hours late, and when it did arrive, Miss Morton found that it was too late for her to catch a car home, and she had to make the long trip on foot.

In the meantime her sister Laura had reached home, had told the others of the family that Tonia had failed to meet her at the train, and in his alarm the brother-in-law had instituted a search for the missing young woman.

"It was all a mistake," said Miss Laura Morton last night. "My sister reached home all right, just a little after midnight."

LOCAL MEN MAKE RICH OIL STRIKEOKLAHOMA CITY MEN ARE IN-TERESTED IN A WELL AT JENNINGS.

W. C. Briscoe and George W. Fox, two Oklahoma City men, are interested in one of the best flowing wells in the Mid-Continent oil field. It is known as the Meadows deep well and is located at Jennings. It has been recently baled out and flowed two-thirds of a tank in four hours, through 1,500 feet of water.

The flow is said to be so great that the three two-inch mains from the well to the tank were not sufficient to carry the oil and another two-inch line was connected the first of the week.

It was estimated by conservative oil men, when the well was first shot, that it would make at least 500 barrels, but since cleaning it out, it is now estimated that it will run between 500 and 1,000 barrels of high grade oil, testing 44 gravity.

This is the first deep well in the Mid-Continent field. The first string of casing collapsed from the pressure at 2,500 feet, and heavy casing was brought from Pennsylvania, and another attempt was made to clean out and shoot, but this time the tools were lost, necessitating a long and expensive fishing job. The tools were recovered last week, and while lowering a torpedo, an accident caused its premature explosion at 1,600 feet, causing the well and casing another delay. Finally the bridge was drilled out and the well was shot Thursday.

NEWS SELLER FINED

Because he kicked Russell Kleiner, an Oklahoman newsboy, off a passenger coach at the Rock Island station, T. F. Campbell, a news butcher on the Rock Island, was fined $5 and costs by Judge Higley in police court yesterday evening.

Young Kleiner claimed that a man on the platform had called to him for a paper, and that when he delivered it the butcher grabbed him by the shoulder and kicked him off, his hip striking the brick pavement, causing a severe bruise.

Campbell made no denial of the kicking, but averred that the boy was trespassing and, therefore, he had a right to kick him. He appealed the case.

ATTORNEY BRINGS
BIG LIBEL SUITALLEGES THAT DAMAGING RE-

$25,000 JUDGMENT.

Alleging the circulation by the defendant of remarks and insinuations that reflect on his reputation and standing as a competent and reliable attorney at law, Warren K. Snyder, has filed suit in the district court against G. W. Limerick for damages in the amount of $25,000.

The petition of the plaintiff recites that on and before September 6, 1906, the plaintiff had represented the defendant in a cause entitled A. D. Lee versus G. W. Limerick, which was tried in the probate court of this county. That notwithstanding the plaintiff used all proper care in the conduct of the case, and did all that a reputable attorney could do to protect the interests of his client, a verdict unfavorable to Limerick was given in the probate court. Under instructions from his client, the plaintiff appealed the case to the supreme court of the territory, and on September 6, 1906, that court affirmed the decision of the lower court.

On the following day, September 7, 1906, the plaintiff's petition alleges that the defendant used about the following language in a public place and in the presence of several witnesses, speaking to J. W. Jenkins, who had represented A. D. Lee in the suit:

AUCTIONEER WANTS HIS MONEY BACK

COUNCIL TAKES TIME TO CONSIDER—PAT STAND PETITION TURNED DOWN.

Because business in his particular line is dull and he is unable to renew the lease on a building at 321 West Grand avenue, where he has been conducting an auction store, D. Keller last night petitioned the city council that they refund to him $40 of the $50 he paid May 28 for an auctioneer's yearly license fee.

Councilman McDavid moved that the prayer be granted, but a protest from Councilman Van Meter, followed by a vigorous kick from McWilliams, caused the motion to be lost. The matter was then referred to the claims committee for investigation.

"There are two sides to such cases as this," said Councilman Van Meter. "I think we should investigate a little before we either refund the money or refuse to do so."

"Aside from the allowance of the current bills, there was nothing doing at the session of the city fathers."

"Neither the mayor, nor president of the council was present, and in their absence, Land of the First ward, president, Alderman Packer, McWaye, Fowler, Helm, Van Meter and McWilliams were in attendance."

"Pop Stands in the fire flint was sprung afresh last night by the presentation of a petition for privilege to erect one on North Broadway."

McDavid moved that the permission be given, but McWilliams and Van Meter insisted that no violations of the ordinance should be further countenanced by the council. "Well there is one right next to my place of business on Grand avenue that was put there on Sunday without asking the aid or consent of anybody," declared McDavid. "I haven't heard any of the councilmen kicking about that. If I lived up there on North Broadway I would feel slightly if there wasn't one started next door."

On roll call the council voted four to one against granting the petition. A contract with the Prison railroad providing for the maintenance by that company of an art. light on Washington street was ordered signed, after which the council adjourned.

Your difficulty is more than half solved when you have thought of an Oklahoma want.

SALVATION ARMY PREPARES TO START CAMPAIGN FOR BIG BUILDING FUND.

A campaign to raise $45,000, which will be expended in erecting a building at 608 East Fifth street, will soon be inaugurated by Staff Captain Atkins of the Salvation Army. The money will be gathered by state-wide subscriptions.

"We have closed the deal for our lot," says Captain Atkins. "We now have before us the campaign for the greater share of the money."

"Our headquarters will be moved to the frame structure at 608 East Fifth street this week. There we will maintain state and division headquarters."

"The plans for this building have not yet been determined upon but it can be assured that we will have a structure that will be a credit to the city. Special attention will be paid to the architecture."

"At one time, it was the plan to copy the Wichita building in every detail. Now we find that a small building like that will not accommodate us and will therefore erect one three times as costly, in proportion to the needs of the division."

"The building will be built of native brick and cost near $45,000. It will accommodate the entire army corps of this state."

TO CHOOSE SITE FOR BIG BREWERY

ANHEUSER-BUSCH COMPANY REPRESENTATIVES WILL BE IN THE CITY TODAY.

Representatives of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing company will be in the city today for the purpose of selecting a site for a building to be erected by that company for its territorial offices which are to be removed to this city from Guthrie.

James S. Bryan of Perry, territorial agent for the brewing company, and former mayor of that town, will remove with his family to Oklahoma City about July 1, making their temporary residence in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sutton, 15 West Third street, as Mr. Sutton has been granted a vacation by the brewing company and will be absent from the city until January 1, visiting eastern points for a few weeks and then going to the mountains of Colorado.

"Representatives of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing company will be in the city tomorrow to select a site," said Mr. Sutton last night. "It is the company's intention to erect a three or four story building, and construction of same will begin shortly after the site is chosen. The removal of the offices will bring several families to this city from Guthrie."

OFFERING AT DELMAR WINS MUCH APPLAUSE

NUMEROUS VAUDEVILLE ATTRACTIONS ARE WELL RECEIVED BY AUDIENCE.

The large audiences that have seen the big vaudeville show at Delmar theater this week, have been generous in their applause.

"A Dip in Vaudeville," the headliner, is a gorgeous scenic affair with impersonations, burlesque and excerpts from some of the foremost acts in the country. A good deal of original work is also done and the limit of its delight to the audience is reached in the climax where a beautiful lily pond buds its flowers into life with the finishing scene a jeweled rainfall. McWatters, Tyson and company present it.

"Blum-Bum-Bum," the European novelty musical act, which failed to arrive in time for Sunday's shows, opened last night and was a decided hit. Many new ideas in musical work are presented. The electrical effects are unusual.

Collins and Hawley, the boys with the purple suits, have a list of steps that surpass any dancing act seen on Delmar's stage.

The Marvelous Dentons in a ring and bar act do many difficult and startling feats that interest the spectators. They give a pretty exhibition of acrobatics and are unusually clever and skillful. Nello does a part of his work while standing on one foot on a wire and fills the stage with his juggling articles. Mme. Nello assists her husband and adds charm to the act.

Grey and Peters, comely and trick cyclists, make a clever team in their line of work.

"The Green" is having a record week and the various attractions are well patronized. Enthusiasts of dancing find great pleasure in the commodious new hall that has opened and the floor is filled nightly by merry dancers.

HAYWOOD DEFENSE TO BEGIN TODAY

Owners association of Colorado and the Pinkerton Detective association had joined hands in a conspiracy to discredit and destroy the Western Federation of Miners. Agents of the mine owners, he asserted, committed many minor crimes to discredit the federation and promised that the defense would show that it was a reasonable inference that they had engineered the Independence depot outrage as an "attempt" that had miscarried into a tragedy. He asserted that this trial was the culmination of the conspiracy to kill the organization by killing the leaders, that the organization and not "Bill" Haywood was on trial, and that Harry Orchard under the manipulation of Detective McFarland was trying to kill Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone that he might save his own life.

In explanation of the draft for $100 which Haywood sent to Jack Simpkins on December 21, 1905, Mr. Darrow promised that the defense would show that Simpkins had an expense account for $223 against the federation, and that after Simpkins had cashed the check for that amount in Denver, he gave Haywood $100 with the request that he mail the amount to him at his home in Spokane.

Of the personal relations between Orchard and Pettibone, Mr. Darrow declared that any one could make friends with Pettibone, as he would "any other dog." As to their financial relations, Mr. Darrow said that when Orchard left Denver for Wyoming he gave Pettibone his money, his Masonic badge and other trinkets, and some papers for safe keeping. From time to time Pettibone forwarded parts of the money to him as he requested.

The registered package that went to San Francisco contained the Masonic pin, trinkets and papers, and the money that Pettibone sent to Orchard at San Francisco was sent in a manner and under assumed names that Orchard had directed and suggested in a telegram he sent to Pettibone. The use of assumed names, counsel declared, was a common practice among the union miners of Colorado, made a stern necessity by the blacklisting of union miners, whom he declared had been abused, hounded, denied justice and driven from the state.

Mr. Darrow said the defense would probably not undertake a showing as to the unsigned letter received by Orchard at Caldwell fall—the letter that said "that" had been sent to "Jack" on December 21 and which Orchard swore Pettibone wrote—and at the close both sides would probably argue their respective constructions of it.

The defense will call its first witness at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, and promises, unless cross-examination is exceptionally long, to make all of its proof within seven or eight days.

SOCIETY

HERTHA
JOBSON.

Oklahoma City Hive No. 6. Ladies of the Macabees, will have a social gathering in their hall on Main street, Friday night. A number of Oklahoma City's talented people are on the program.

Last week Miss Nellie Mahaffey of 24 West Ninth street, delightfully entertained the Epworth Society. Besides the members, several guests enjoyed the afternoon, which was spent in answering questions by forming words ending in nation. Mrs. D. S. Miller proved to have the largest number of such words in her vocabulary and received a pretty book on fellowship. Apropos to the occasion. Following the contest a dainty two course luncheon was served.

Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus, the great preacher and lecturer of Chicago, who preached Sunday afternoon and lectured Sunday night on Savonarola, at Convention hall, under the auspices of the chautauqua, was the guest of his old friend, S. G. Bennett of 623 West Thirteenth street, Sunday evening. Dr. Gunsaulus was Mr. Bennett's pastor years ago in Chillicothe, Ohio.

Miss Lucille Dora, who will have the chair of French at the high school next year, left Saturday for her home in Charleston, Ill., after a three day visit with her friend, Mrs. R. R. Fuller, formerly of that place. Miss Dora was en route from Butte, Montana.

The sorority of Epworth with a membership of eleven of the students including out of town residents, was given a farewell party for this season by the Misses Hazel Beauchamp and Marge McCredie, at the home of the former on West Twelfth street. No guests but Mrs. T. G. Chambers were bidden. Having pictures to represent the popular books, afforded the afternoon's amusement. Miss Mary Upshaw's vivid imagination won for her a pretty plate. During the afternoon tea was served. The members present were Misses Nellie Mahaffey, Jessie Thorne, Ray Malone, Ada Woodward, Una Reed, Ethel Spriggs, Florence Wilson and Mary Upshaw. The only absent member was Miss Gertrude Bolton, who is touring in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Barth left last night on the Prison for Kansas City to attend the wedding of Mr. Barth's nephew, Mr. Irvin V. Barth, a prominent young lawyer of St. Louis, and Miss Jessie Kahn, which will take place Wednesday evening at the Baltimore hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Barth will remain a week. During their absence, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meyer will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Meyer.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hart have an elegant dinner, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meyer. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sol Barth and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Meyer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Truog have returned from a visit in Kansas City, bringing with them their sister, Miss Esther Truog, who will make an extended stay. Miss Olive Stone of Kansas City will shortly join them.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Saunders are home from their Denison, Tex., visit.

The Joy de Vie disputes the rights of any club to excel in summer entertainment and is determined to keep the dancing pavilion warm with the tripping of the light fantastic. The members have all the requisitions to maintain their rights—money, inclination and accommodation—and if they don't care to dance, they have a prior right to be a spectator, or stay at home. At a recent meeting, the following new members were added: Messrs. William Brooks, Dick Tomlinson, Harry Kneer, Guy Turner, and Grover Moore. Those who enjoyed Friday evening at Putnam were Misses Hill, Ragun, Clark, Harrell, Mottie Harrell, Burton, Grant, Turner, A. Wright, Coater, Vivian Coater, Workman, Dickhouse, Rickett, Edith Rickett, Price, Carlick, Combs, Consigny, Messrs. Tomkinson, K. Ross, Whittington, Rhinehardt, Nichols, Sutton.

Nichols, Offutt, Eitor, Walker, Brant, Brooks, Braden Brooks, Smith, Boland, Peyton, Dietz, Follenstein, Hill, Silles, Johnson, Frazer, Luteweller. The chaperones included Messrs. and Mesdames Gilpin and Hutton; Mesdames Leeper, Peyton, Juntgen and Harrell.

Major and Mrs. J. P. Allen returned Saturday night from Wilburton, I. T., after a ten day's visit with their children. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allen. Through the popularity of their host and hostess, numerous courtesies were extended, thus affording a delightful time and making that place charming to these guests.

Last Friday evening Miss Blanche Martin gave an enjoyable chafing dish party in honor of Miss Blanche Martin of Pittsburg, Pa. The guests were Misses Fay Rowland, Helen Richardson, Elaine Buxton, Clara Sims, Lelia Kivren, Edith Morris and Edith Miller.

Walnut Grove Mission lately organized, but progressing rapidly, will give an ice cream fete tonight, for the benefit of the new edifice now in the course of erection. The affair will be held on the church lawn, corner of Garden Road and Frisco street. Owing to the many friends of the members of this auxiliary, a successful social evening as well as financial is anticipated.

The Misses Henley of Wabash, Ind., will arrive today for a ten days' visit with their brother, Mr. Clarence Henley. Miss Henley who visited here several years ago will be remembered by her many acquaintances, who will gladly welcome her return.

Mr. H. W. Edell, one of the deserters of the Pickwick club, departed Saturday morning for Kansas City, to join his wife and accompany her home the end of the week.

More on account of decreasing membership than extreme heat, the Chafing Dish club held its final meeting for the season yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lee Van Winkle of 231 East Tenth street. A delightful afternoon was enjoyed by the members and guests who indulged in the accustomed hot euchre. The prizes were beautiful hand painted plates, Mrs. Moberly winning the progression prize. Mrs. Coater was fortunate in having the greatest number of lone hands. The guest list included Mesdames Coater, Jorvey, Patterson, Kilbourne and Miss Marie Clark of Waco, Texas.

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Sheppard Ferguson breakfasted at the Pickwick club, Sunday morning.

The Woman's Guild will hold an open session today at the home of Mrs. W. P. Homan, 24 West Ninth. As these meetings are always social successes, friends often avail themselves of an opportunity to mingle with these delightful women and enjoy their entertainment. This afternoon a clipping party, a feature of the postponed Gypsy encampment, will be the amusement. Mesdames Burke, Walker, Coater and Hughes are the assisting hostesses.

Mrs. W. B. Hill and daughter Miss Alene will leave Wednesday night for an extended visit in Kentucky. Miss Alene is a beautiful and charming debutante, who will be greatly missed during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Burgess Pardon are domiciled at the latter's maternal home during the absence of Mrs. Sarah Walker and her daughter Miss Bird who have gone east for a month.

The many friends of Miss Marguerite Grant regret that it will be ten days or more before she will be able to leave her boudoir owing to a sprained ankle which occurred Friday evening.

Mrs. James Herbert Wheeler, one of Oklahoma's most popular as well as most beautiful women has arrived from Kansas City to make her first visit since leaving. During Mrs. Wheeler's stay the Duplicate Whist club will resume its meetings, besides numerous functions that are being planned.

Miss Janie Humphreys accompanied her father, Mr. J. T. Humphreys of 32 Broadway Circle, this morning to St. Louis.

Misses Manor Skifford and Ruth Phillips postponed the departure for their Gainesville visit until today.

Miss Edna Bowman and Miss May Roberts, two charming young ladies of Ardmore, are visiting their friend, Miss Edna Daulton, 1011 East Eighth street.

Mrs. C. F. Gilpin's delightful guests, the Misses Rickett of El Reno, who were shown so much attention by the younger society, have returned home.

Mrs. Carl Sasser of Shawnee, will be guest of honor today at a luncheon given by Mrs. Will Johnston of 913 West Seventeenth street.

The Tuesday Bridge meets with Mrs. Wells Miller, this afternoon.

This afternoon Mrs. C. W. Baumback of 801 West Sixteenth will give a card party for Mrs. Kenworthy of Boone, Ia.

The Women's League, an auxiliary to All Soul's Unitarian church, will hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. George E. Gardner of 627 West Sixteenth, this afternoon at three o'clock.

The Rev. Dr. Davidson left this morning for Weatherford to hold services in the church at that place for two days.

Mrs. T. G. Chambers gave a pleasant afternoon for Mrs. William Parker Saturday. Only the most intimate Philadelphians were bidden. The hostess presented the honoree with a friendship booklet, which was compiled after the guests had written farewell messages.

Miss Ellen Gibbons offered an opportunity to the friends of Miss Frances Perry to bid her adieu last Friday evening, by inviting them to a pretty party. About thirty girls and boys attended and as a farewell gave her an autograph booklet.

Circle number Three of the First Christian church met Monday afternoon with Mrs. O. P. Workman of 221 West Tenth street.

Every Man His Own Doctor.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. COMPOSES A SONG BEHIND JAIL BARS

INSANE MAN INDUCES PUBLISHING HOUSE TO PRINT SENTIMENTAL BALLAD.

Emil Walters, convicted two years ago of a statutory crime, sentenced to fifteen years in the penitentiary, pronounced insane by the prison authorities and since confined in the Oklahoma county jail, has been devoting his time to literature and recently composed a song which has just been set to music and produced by a New York City publishing house. The title of the production is "Whisper, Oh Parting is Due." It carries about the usual proportion of romance, sentiment and tragedy, being an admixture of love, twin, moonlight, June breezes, nightingales, a far-off dying mother, blue eyes and kisses. The chorus runs this wise: "Whisper, sweet lips of roses, I again return to you, Whisper, oh whisper, for mother sake, Whisper, oh parting is due." Walters has been furnished with 50 copies of his production by the company publishing it, and is attempting to dispose of them, but finds some difficulty in doing so.

He is now engaged in the composition of another song, of which he intends also to compose the music. He says he secured his musical education in St. Louis and Chicago, and is a performer on the mandolin.

JOHN NOBLE NOW IN COUNTY JAIL

SLAYER WHO WAS PRONOUNCED INSANE BY KANSAS AUTHORITIES IS RETURNED.

With the vacant stare in his eyes that was marked throughout his trial and conviction for murder last April, an old briar pipe between his teeth and a week's growth of beard on his chin, John Noble is back in the county jail, a trifle fuller in the cheeks and heavier of body, but otherwise unchanged from the time of his incarceration in the Kansas penitentiary six weeks ago.

Noble was pronounced insane by the Kansas prison authorities and Sheriff Garrison was ordered to bring him back, the county jail of Oklahoma county being designated by Governor Pratt as his place of future confinement. The sheriff reached home with his prisoner Sunday morning.

When asked how he liked the Kansas penitentiary, Noble said: "What's that? Do you mean the place up in Kansas where they have been keeping me? Oh! I liked that place much better than I do this. If I have to spend my life behind prison bars, I liked the work they gave me to do up there. All I did was to scrub out the halls and mop the floors a little. There was a door open into a yard, where I was allowed to go whenever I wanted to." "You didn't want to leave that place then?" he was asked. "No, not if I have to be kept locked up," was the reply.

"What made them send you away, then?" he was asked. "Oh! I don't know, they didn't want to keep me any longer. I guess it was because I had too many marks on me."

"Where are the marks on you, and what are they like?" "I don't know, I guess it is mostly my brains. It seems like I can't get them straightened out right. If I have to spend my life in prison, I would much rather go back there. They gave me plenty of good things to eat. Just all I wanted of everything."

RACE AGAINST RAIN IS WON IN CANTER

PUTNAM PARK THEATER NOW PROOF AGAINST WEEPING OF THE CLOUDS.

"I'll bet I know more weather signs than any old fish woman on the sea shore," says Manager Slater of the Putnam Park theater. "In this race of mine to get the roof and the side curtains on the Putnam theater before the rain came, it was necessary for me to be more supernatural than a gypsy. This is the biggest summer theater in the southwest and I know it is the best because I have watched every nail go in. But the thing that makes me smile is that the roof is all on and the side curtains are up, so I don't have to watch the smoke any more to see whether or not it is going to rain."

"If you want to see whether or not the actors who are playing this comedy, 'A Marriage a la Mode' think that it is, just come back behind the scenes." "There in that trunk is George Carter, Jr. His father and mother are members of the company and go on the stage when they are not too busy playing with this two-year-old boy." When George, Jr., saw a stranger, up went his two fat legs and two plump arms and he demanded to play. "Now do a heavy turn for us George," said the proud father. George straightened himself on his short legs, worked his face into as dark a leer as his bright eyes would let him and played with his fingers like a real villain and lisped deeply. "Ah, getta de mon!" George Carter, Sr., laughed and said emphatically, "No, sir, marriage is no failure." Just then his cue came and the father slipped the babe into the trunk with a kiss.

VOLUNTEER CHIEF AND MONEY GONE

ENID RELIGIOUS WORKERS ARE STIRRED UP OVER CAPTAIN'S DISAPPEARANCE.

Special to the Oklahoman.

Enid, June 24.—Captain Svenson, who has been in charge of the work of the Volunteers in this city for about the last three months, is missing and a considerable sum of money the exact amount of which it is impossible to determine is in his possession. At the barracks it was given out today that the amount is somewhere between $100 and $500, but as the captain attended to all the details of the business himself there is no record left of the sum of money he is supposed to have.

Recently collectors for the Volunteers have gathered funds from private homes in all parts of the city for the purpose of defraying the expenses of a "Poor children's picnic." These collectors have all carried credentials duly signed by Svenson and the money collected was turned over to him each night. Collections were made from the merchants at the same time for the picnic, which was set for next Thursday. Saturday morning the collectors went out as usual but when they returned the captain was gone. He has now been absent two days and it is stated at the barracks that his whereabouts are unknown.

The picnic funds are not the only ones Captain Svenson is supposed to have. About two months ago the Volunteers under the leadership of this same party undertook to establish a hospital in this city. A careful campaign was first made among the members of the medical profession and their endorsements were secured. Then leading citizens were requested to contribute to the erection of the proposed hospital and are said to have given liberally.

About a month ago it was given out by Captain Svenson that a site had been secured for the hospital, and the site named was a valuable one. It was learned that while an agreement was made with a real estate agent for the purchase of the site no money was ever actually paid on the contract. There is no record of the expenditure of any of the funds collected for hospital purposes nor of the amount raised.

Lieutenant Shriver, now in charge of the barracks, say that he fears the leader will not return.

Mrs. Svenson is still here and claims to know no cause for her husband's disappearance. She said that she would assist in locating him.

Captain Svenson and his wife came here from Grand Island, Neb., under order of Major Gillette.

NINE DEAD IN TENEMENT HOUSE

New York, June 25.—A four-story building at Lafayette and Walker streets collapsed early this morning. The police announced that 18 persons, members of Italian families, were in the building. Seven are known to have escaped, two have been rescued and nine are supposed to be still beneath the ruins.

George Tarchino, 19 years old, and his sister, Marie, 11, were taken from the ruins, both alive, but badly injured.

The police fear that most of the nine persons still beneath the ruins are dead. It will be several hours before the work of rescue is completed.

WILL ASK TEDDY TO TAKE HAND

Oakland, Cal., June 24.—President Small of the Telegraphers union announced this afternoon that he would ask the aid of the United States government in the settlement of the strike. He said he would appeal to President Roosevelt and members of the cabinet to intercede on the ground that the transaction of the business of national importance is being interfered with because of the strike. President Small asserts that when intervention is made by the president and cabinet officials it will be learned that the striking telegraphers are in no wise to blame for the strike.

A telegram was received by Manager Storer of the Postal Telegraph company in San Francisco from Clarence Mackay, president of the Postal Telegraph company. It is in substance as follows:

"While deeply regretting the situation, I feel that our men in abandoning their positions were unmindful and heedless of their duty to the public and the company and guilty of unwarranted action. We shall take a firm stand in dealing with the situation and we are determined to win regardless of the cost. With this in view, I hereby approve and confirm the instructions given you by the general manager, and in addition thereto you are authorized to say to our loyal men who stand by us in our difficulty:

"All operators will be paid their regular salary as a bonus and their service will be computed as extra on a basis of seven hours per day or night. Should you deem it wise to do so, you may also furnish free meals and lodging until we return to our normal condition."

ROOSEVELT ASKED TO PROBE "CONSPIRACY"

Washington, June 24.—The central labor union of Washington tonight sent a telegram to President Roosevelt, requesting that he institute an investigation to determine if the telegraph companies have entered into a conspiracy in restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. At the request of the American Federation of Labor, similar action, it is said, will be taken by all the leading labor organizations in the United States.

REPUBLICAN ORATOR PLEADS FOR HIS PARTY'S INTEGRITY

"And you, people of Oklahoma, are about to enter upon the superb condition of statehood. Think of the future of your state, this great commonwealth to be, before you think of any partisan advantage. I am a republican, and I love the dear old republican party, but I would rather see it defeated for all time to come in Oklahoma, than to see it stained by partisan dishonor. Be careful of your future representatives in congress. They, if of the right sort, can do for your great state what no living representative from beyond its borders can do. But be careful that none of them are in any way allied with the combinations of capital which are destroying the very vitals of our beloved representative form of government."

This spoke Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin before a large chautauqua audience at Convention hall last night. During his lecture on the trusts, for a space of two hours the distinguished orator reviewed the trusts and combinations of the country, which he characterized as gradually destroying the representative form of government established by the patriots who obtained their independence as the result of the revolution.

This afternoon and tonight, Congressman Charles Landis of Indiana will deliver lectures on important topics. Prominent republicans of the city are interested in his appearance here, and have assured the chautauqua management that they will turn out in force. Mr. Landis will probably prove the most interesting of speakers to be heard during the present sessions of the chautauqua.

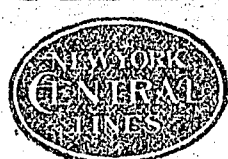

During the discussion of the trusts, Mr. La Follette said he believed that representatives of the people in the state and national government are largely under corporate influences, and that the conditions are growing worse instead of better. The speaker then related the story of the commercial life of the nation from the beginning to the present, dividing the periods into three—the period of individual ownership, the period of the private corporation, and, finally, the present period of trusts and monopolistic combines.

"We must redeem the representative form of government," said the speaker. "I believe the business interests of the country are gradually destroying the representative form of government. Combinations are effected for but one purpose alone, to control the markets of the nation and to get rid of competition. They absolutely destroy the natural laws of trade and commerce. The trade of the entire nation is controlled by 75 men. The people who are the producers of the marketable products are the abject slaves to these 75 men."

Continuing, Mr. La Follette said that he most emphatically objected to being classed as trying to destroy capital, but that he wanted to see the original idea of the national government preserved, and the influences at work through the trusts would not accomplish such a result.

Coming down to the influences of the combines here in Oklahoma, Mr. La Follette referred to the blunders of the federal government, which he declared were for the most part owned or controlled by the railroads of the country. "You consumers here in Oklahoma pay tribute every day to these coal potentates; these railroad controlled land companies. Out of a total of 400,000 acres of coal lands in Indian Territory, they already control 112,000 acres, and had it not been for certain investigations at Washington they would have gobbled up the rest of the land ere this."

Then the speaker advised the people of Oklahoma to be cautious in the selection of their representatives to congress after statehood. He urged that no man in any manner allied with these combines be given a seat in congress, because of these influences, and because he could not and would not be a true representative of the people.

S.S.S. HEALS OLD SORES

An old sore or ulcer is only a symptom, an outlet for the impurities and poisons which are in the blood, and as long as this vital fluid remains in this impure, contaminated state the place will never heal. The application of salves, washes, powders, etc., may cause the spot to scab over, but a fresh outpouring of diseased matter from the blood starts it again, and thus it goes on, gradually growing worse and slowly affecting the entire health of the sufferer. There are many ways in which the blood becomes contaminated and poisoned. A long spell of sickness breeds disease germs in the system, the failure of the eliminative members to remove the refuse and waste matter of the body, the excessive use of mineral medicines in certain diseases, all infect the blood with morbid matter and germs which sooner or later is manifested by a sore that refuses to heal. Persons with inherited blood taint are very apt to be afflicted with sores and ulcers. The taint may lie dormant during young, vigorous life, but when middle age is reached or passed and the natural energies begin to grow weaker, the tissues in some weak point break down and a chronic sore is formed and kept open by the constant drainage of impure matter from the blood. If the cause is not removed the sore will continue to grow worse by eating deeper into the flesh, festering, discharging, and slowly undermining the constitution. S. S. S. heals old sores by going down to the very bottom of the trouble, driving out the impurities and building up the entire circulation. When S. S. S. has removed the cause the blood becomes rich and healthy, the sore begins to heal, new flesh is formed, and soon the place is cured. Do not depend on external applications, which do not reach the blood, but begin the use of S. S. S. and remove of the cause, and then the sore must heal. Markets of the World

ALL GRAINS WEAK ON HEAVY SALES

BREAK IN OATS KILLS WHEAT FIRMNESS CORN SENTIMENT BEARISH.

Chicago, June 24.—All the local grain markets were weak today because of liberal selling by long. At the close September wheat was off 3-4¢ to 5-8¢. Corn was down 1-2¢ to 3-4¢. Oats were down 1-2¢ to 3-4¢. Provisions were off 1-2¢ to 1-4¢.

The wheat market opened firm because of an advance of 1¢ at Liverpool, and because of a decrease of 4,000,000 bushels in the amount of breadstuffs on ocean passage. The strength, however, was short lived. A sharp break in the price of oats caused lively selling by all traders. The fear of a general strike of telegraphers also weakened prices. The weather conditions in this country and Canada were favorable for the new crop and this was a bearish influence. The close was weak with prices close to the lowest point of the day. September opened 1-1/2¢ to 1-3/4¢ higher at 95-1/2¢ to 95-3/4¢, closed at 94-1/4¢ and closed at 94-3/4¢. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 405,500 bushels. Primary receipts were 702,000 bushels against 417,000 bushels for the same day last year. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 453 cars against 513 cars last week and 438 cars a year ago.

Large primary receipts and favorable weather for the new crop had a depressing effect on the corn market, sentiment being bearish nearly all day. The close was weak. September opened a shade lower to 1-3/4¢ higher at 83-1/2¢ to 83-3/4¢, closed at 82-3/4¢ and closed at 82-3/4¢. Local receipts were 758 cars with 235 of contract grade.

A two cent decline in the July delivery was the feature of the oats market. The market closed weak. September opened 1-1/2¢ to 1-3/4¢ higher at 33-1/2¢ to 33-3/4¢, closed at 32-3/4¢ and closed at 32-3/4¢. Local receipts were 123 cars.

The provision market was firm all day because of buying by local packers. At the close pork was up 1/2¢ to 1-1/2¢ at 13-1/2¢ to 13-3/4¢. Lard was up 1/2¢ to 1-1/2¢ at 13-1/2¢ to 13-3/4¢. Ribs were higher at 13-1/2¢ to 13-3/4¢.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat 41 cars; corn 726 cars; oats 120 cars; hogs 18,000 head.

3 TORNADOES HIT KANSAS TOWN

Life Imperiled and Big Property Loss in Night Storms

Medicine Lodge, Kan., June 24.—Three distinct tornadoes struck Medicine Lodge late last night destroying 25 houses in the northern part of the town. Six persons were injured seriously and one is still missing. As far as known no lives were lost. Several persons are reported injured and much damage done to property in the path of the tornadoes in the surrounding country.

The missing at Medicine Lodge: Mrs. Bell, an aged woman. Injured at Medicine Lodge: Mrs. May Lay, internally, may die. J. R. McCoy, arm broken; Mrs. J. R. McCoy, ribs broken, skull injured; Miss Mary Griffith, internally; a Mrs. Morris, arm broken; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sauer, bruised.

The first tornado struck Medicine Lodge, which has a population of about 1,000 persons, shortly after 7 o'clock Sunday evening, destroying telephone and telegraph wires, which shut off communication with the outside, and causing other damage. Later two other tornadoes struck, completing the damage done by the first. The third storm appeared shortly before midnight. All three came from the northwest and were accompanied by a terrific fall of rain and hail, which damaged crops.

The greater part of the damage sustained in Medicine Lodge was in the northern part of the town. The residence of United States Senator Chester I. Long was slightly damaged. The Long family escaped injury. The residence of Ralph Paxon, Senator Long's secretary, was demolished but the family escaped.

GOVERNMENT GETS AFTER BIG GAME

SUIT IN EQUITY AGAINST RAILROADS AND COAL CONCERNS.

Cheyenne, Wyo., June 24.—As a result of the interstate commerce commission hearing in this city and Salt Lake and the subsequent investigation by the department of justice of the United States, a suit in equity was filed in the United States circuit court here this afternoon by the United States government against the Union Pacific Railroad company; the Union Pacific Coal company; the Superior Coal company; F. M. Cornish, of New Jersey, vice-president of the Union Pacific Railroad company and D. O. Clark, vice-president and general manager of the Union Pacific Coal company and of the Superior Coal company.

The charge specifies that 20 entries of coal land have been fraudulently made by individuals named for the use of the defendants. This land is alleged to be worth about $600,000 and the bill in equity asks that the patents on the land be cancelled, that an injunction be issued restraining the further working of this land by the defendants and that they be compelled to give an accounting of all the coal mined, produced or sold upon this land.

PROTECTS PROPERTY OF DIVORCED WIFE

Seven little boys, ranging in age from eight to fifteen years, were arrested by the police yesterday evening, charged by Lewis Rockwood with having entered the home of his divorced wife at 914 East Third street, while she was away, and stealing $15 worth of trinkets.

The boys gave their names as Harold Blasted, Eugene Blasted, Farris Gale, Ralph Hard, Earl Hardy, Earl Leaverton and Glen Leaverton. They do not deny entering the home, but claim they did not molest anything.

The case was continued until Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock.

ALLEGED BUNCOR IS TURNED LOOSE

COUNTY ATTORNEY DECIDES THAT ACCUSED MIGHT ESTABLISH AN ALIBI.

C. Berg, who was arrested Friday at Guthrie, by Deputy Sheriff Lucas on a warrant charging him with grand larceny, has been released from the county jail on the order of Assistant County Attorney Thorpe.

Berg is charged with having assisted Alfred Mittinger in defrauding an old farmer named William Winegarner of Benton, Kan., of $30 in a confidence game on a Santa Fe train in this city on the morning of January 7, 1907. Both men were convicted of a similar charge in Logan county, and are now out on bond awaiting a second trial, which was granted by the supreme court.

Mittinger was arrested at a rooming house at 211 West California street, Sunday morning, and is still confined in the county jail.

"I am innocent of both of these charges," said Mittinger last night. "And if I had been given an opportunity to do so, I could have proved my innocence in Guthrie. I have been treated all right here, so far, and I hope to come out all right."

Berg was released because the county attorney is convinced that he was in Guthrie the morning the alleged robbery occurred.

85 KILLED IN WRECK ON OCEAN

Only Two Persons Are Believed to Have Been Saved

Santiago, Chile, June 24.—The Pacific Steam Navigation company's coasting steamer Santiago, a vessel of 1,300 tons, trading between Panama and the south coast of Africa, has been wrecked in a heavy squall, fifty miles north of Corral. One passenger and one officer are known to have been saved. The remainder of the passengers and crew are reported to have perished.

The Santiago left Corral with her engines out of order as a result of storms, and, instead of proceeding to Ancon, she started to return to Valparaiso, a much greater distance. She carried four passengers and 87 in her crew. It is feared that all except two persons perished.

A sister ship, the Arequipa, sunk during a terrible storm at Valparaiso about four years ago, when many lost their lives.

Liverpool, June 24.—The Pacific Steam Navigation company has received a cablegram confirming the loss of the steamer Santiago. The vessel was engaged chiefly in the freight trade and her passengers mostly were traders travelling between west coast ports. The crew mainly were South Americans. When wrecked the Santiago was proceeding to Valparaiso.

TO APPEAL IF RULING DOES NOT SUIT THEM

Guthrie, Okla., June 24.—Buckner & Buckner, attorneys for Daniel W. Harding, of Enid, state that if a writ of mandamus is refused them by the Oklahoma supreme court, they will appeal to the United States supreme court, which will reconvene in October.

The writ is asked to prevent Associate Justice Mill Garber of the Oklahoma supreme court from appointing a receiver for land, recently bought by Harding but which is tied up in court. In the petition for the writ, Garber is charged with violating two mandates of the United States supreme court in that he appointed a receiver for the Harding land after the supreme court of the United States had instructed that Harding be undisturbed in his possession, pending court proceedings.

Because of his peculiar dress and head-gear, Garber is known as the cowboy member of the Oklahoma supreme bench, in that he affects such an appearance.

TRIED FOR KILLING SISTER'S BETRAVER

HEARING OF SENSATIONAL CASE INVOLVING SOCIETY FOLK IS BEGUN.

Brussels, June 24.—The trial of Carlos Waddington, the 16-year-old son of Senator Luis Waddington, former charge d'affaires of Chili at Brussels, on the charge of murdering Senator Balmaceda, secretary of the Chilian legation, February 21, last, opened this morning.

The court was crowded with society people and diplomats.

Balmaceda was engaged to be married to the daughter of Senator Waddington. A few days before the tragedy he called upon Mrs. Waddington and announced his decision to withdraw from the marriage.

He admitted, it is charged, that he had behaved improperly towards Miss Waddington, but accused the young woman of having misbehaved before he met her. Later young Carlos Waddington drove to the home of Balmaceda, who was his personal friend, and after a quarrel shot and killed him.

The contention of the Balmaceda family is that the Waddingtons had tried to force the marriage upon the young secretary of legation and that upon his refusal to marry they resolved to get rid of him.

The Waddingtons submit as justification for Carlos' act that Balmaceda had refused to redress the wrong he had done Miss Waddington.

TORNADO IS DEADLY

The Well Informed of the World.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component Parts and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the first and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to worldwide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

RAPID PROGRESS IN MURDER TRIAL

VIRGINIA JUDGE BEFORE COURT FOR INVOKING THE UNWRITTEN LAW.

Houston, Virginia, June 24.—The trial of former Judge W. G. Lovins for the murder of young Theodore Estes, a sequel of a buggy ride which Estes took with Lovins's 19-year-old daughter, moved rapidly today, and when court adjourned this afternoon, the prosecution had rested and the defense had begun its case.

The progress in the trial was remarkable. Before adjournment of the morning session a jury had been secured, mostly middle aged men, and all but three of them married, eleven of them being farmers, the lone exception being a merchant. The taking of testimony began upon the re-convening of court, and late this afternoon the commonwealth rested its case and Judge Lovins, whose defense is the unwritten law, had taken the witness stand in his own behalf.

Judge Lovins, armed with a double barreled shot gun, instantly killed Estes while he was unloading a car of fertilizer in Oak Ridge on April 22. The girl, when brought home from the buggy ride, it developed, had been drinking and it is alleged that her escort had been maltreating her. Acting under the impulse that his daughter had been drugged and assaulted, Judge Lovins immediately went in search of Estes. After the shooting he said:

"I shot to kill. Every drop of blood in my body called for vengeance. I would have gone hundred of miles to kill him."

Backed by the millions of Thomas Ryan, of whose Virginia estate he has been overseer for a number of years and with powerful political influence, every device known to the legal fraternity will be availed of in the efforts of the counsel for the defense to acquit Judge Lovins.

The relatives of young Estes, whose family connections extend to the governor of this state, will exert every effort to clear the memory of the dead man from any stain of wrong doing.
