No will was found this afternoon when the strong box of Dr. Mohr was opened at the Rhode Island Company, but the attorneys have not yet given up hope, for it is believed that the dead man had a safe deposit box in a trust ocmpany in New York. They will go there on Tuesday and make an investigation. The receptacle opened this afternoon contained four life insurance policies. Two of them were for $1,000 each in the Equitable and made payable to the doctor's estate. Another of the policies was for $5,000 in the Prudential and payable to his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Blair Mohr, who stands acgueed of plotting his murder.
