THE CHURCH AND THE COMMUNITY.

When a Church is a family, and it is a minister who presides over the family, the church is a friendly, harmonious family. It is not a place for the public to come. It is a place where the minister and the people come to spend time with each other. The minister leads the congregation in the worship and the reading of the scriptures. The congregation prays and sings, and they share in the service. The minister leads the congregation in the service. The congregation prays and sings, and they share in the service.
