THE TARIFF MEASURE.

It is at once apparent that the administration has succeeded in restraining the passions and calming the antagonist feelings of the people of this country. The resolution of the Senate, which was adopted, and the speech of Mr. Bayard, which was made, have been hailed from both sides of the river with the highest approval. The government has been placed in a position where it is able to carry on its work with the greatest confidence. The Tariff Bill has been referred to the House of Representatives, and if it is passed, it will be the most important measure of the session.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

The Knights of Labor have been in the forefront of the movement for the suppression of the Chinese. They have been active in the suppression of the Chinese in the West and have been successful in their efforts. The Chinese have been numbered and have been made to leave the country. The Knights of Labor have been successful in their efforts to suppress the Chinese, and they have been able to carry on their work with the greatest confidence. The Chinese have been numbered and have been made to leave the country.
