Pacificist Somewhat Perturbed Over Fun Making of Oscar II

CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—In an interview with the United Press, the first woman to be invited to Europe from the United States, Mrs. Ford expressed her opinion that the world was not ready for a woman President. She said it was a good beginning, but that it was only a beginning. She said that it was a good beginning because it had been done before, and that it was a good beginning because it had been done in a way that had not hurt the woman, but had helped her, and that it had been done in a way that had not been harmful to the man, but had helped him.

The "Oscar" is her first started, and it is her last. She said that it was her first started, and it was her last. She said that it was her first started, and it was her last. She said that it was her first started, and it was her last.

On the Oscar if it was not a comical man of war, it was certainly a
